PROLOGUE
You have been tasked by your town to keep your town safe from invading monsters! The monsters are invading your colony and if you are not too careful, they might take it over! Your job is to use the resources your town has given you to keep them safe. In order to use these though, you will have to collect money and build extra towers. The towers will be used for the guards. Once you build the towers for the guards, you will more manpower at your disposal to defend your colony and tower. Place your towers where ever you would like, but place them strategically to where they can still be effective in fighting off your monsters. If you fight off all of your monsters, you win the game! If you fail to defend off your monsters, they will invade your tower and take over your colony and lose the game!
